

LET'S FUTUREUP

E-JOURNAL OF DECEMBER

First Meeting Of Mentees And Mentors

- We've accomplished the first evaluation meeting of the semester with participation of all our mentees successfully.
- Our mentees that having their first meetings with their mentors shared their career plans with us.
- This event was also an introduction for our mentees and mentors.

First Training Of Our Project With Gürkan Kantarci

Gürkan Kantarci, Manager of RB Karesi Textile, mentioned some "red-flags" and some important points of the interviews according to his career experiences.

"Planning A Career" With Tanju Özkonuk

Tanju Özkonuk, Bosch rexroth commercial general manager, enlightened us about how to make a "career plan". He also mentioned some pearls of wisdom about career planning. From his perspective, working harder and advancing ourselves can put us forward in the professional life.

GÜRKAN KANTARCI

"Don't aim for 'doing something', aim for 'trying to doing something'."

"In the professional life, our one and only rival is should be 'ourselves'."

"We're, as mentors, acting as the bridges between school and professional life as well that you choose the path that you're passionate about as your careers."

TANJU ÖZKONUK

"We should question our current situations with coming out of our comfort zones."

"Your name is your personal brand and you should represent this brand in the best way."

"Success is only a result; the things that could be learned on the path of "success" can be lasting."

We made some 'ice-breaking' exercises while our introduction meeting. We debriefed about the project and had a nice atmosphere with our members.

www.letsfutureup.com